

MEYER, Yuriy Konstantinovich

Contemplates emigrating to the US by end of 1951.

Arranged a job for his daughter with Tatyana Shaufus, rep in Europe (Munich) of the Tolstoy Fund, with whom he maintains contact.

Together with Anatoliy Mikhaylovski, a member of the Supreme Monarchist Council, held discussions with Prof Budanov, a member of the organisational committee of the Council of Liberation of the Peoples of Russian and of the National Labor Alliance (the Solidarists), concerning his participation in the work of this Council.

Tried to meet Alexander Kerensky in Munich and according to unconfirmed information, was received by Kerensky together with Mikhaylovski.

His discussions with Budanov and his rumored meeting with Kerensky provoked sharp criticism of his conduct within certain emigre circles close to the Supreme Monarchist Council (of Munich). These circles accused him of having acted without the knowledge of the Council and contrary to the feelings of its chairman, Petr Sharshinski.

According to unconfirmed reports, he has been ejected from the Supreme Monarchist Council.
